

Handcrafted Silverware
Made in Italy since 1926

Established in 1926, Ganci is one of Milan's oldest factories, taken over by Giuseppe Morandino in 1960. At present, Giovanna, Giuseppe, Giorgio and Gianluca go on pursuing the family's passion and expertise.

The company specializes in traditional artisan practices, such as hand finished,
casting, assembling, planishing, repoussage, chisel work and engraving.

The wide range of silver tableware and accessories includes a rich variety of charger plates, soup tureens, bowls, candlesticks, cutlery, teapots, trays, jeweller boxes, vases.

The choice of style and design is often inspired by the desire to reflect the highest skill and craftsmanship.

The prestigious pieces are created by meticulous silversmiths with excellent artisan skills and painstaking attention to detail.

Meticulous attention is paid to the tradition of chiselling that has, for centuries, given the silverware its renowned style and reputation all over the world.

The Morandinos also produce silver-plated and made-to-order objects and reproduce sample pieces.
